STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS FROM WHICH YOU SEEK RELIEF

I, the undersigned, duly depose and say that I am the Applicant in this matter and state as follows:

While at work in mid July ^{at work} Steve bought me a strong drink and then cornered me while coming out of the bathroom with no one in sight trying to persuade me to come to his hotel suite to spend the night. I told my supervisor who told me to "get used to it." And to keep it to myself. He proceeded to call my hotel room until I finally went to see him. After the night he continued to text me on a regular basis with inappropriate things. I tried to get him to stop & told others but he didn't and finally I gave in and agreed to see him a few times after work in parking lots. Someone at work found out and call his house. Then he began to spread word that I was just the office slut and ruining my reputation. He continued to text me however about getting together ^{on a business} business trip and I begged him to please be honest about what happened with us that he had ^{persuaded} ~~persuaded~~ me and that I was not the person character as he had stated. Over the phone he threatened me stating that if I spoke a word of this to ~~keep~~ his wife that he would ruin more than just my reputation but could easily get ~~me~~ fired. At that point I told him I cannot continue on like that and if he couldn't come clean to everyone that I would have to tell. I wrote a letter and left it on their doorstep to his wife. I then thought ~~fun~~ ^{fun} about it and need a young woman to return it to me. She drove up in my car and he saw the car and immediately tried to ram it into her over and over. He obviously thought I was in the car and now I'm scared when this might go next.

Donna,

I wanted to leave you a quick note regarding some information I left out of our meeting the other day. I kept feeling it was an important piece of the puzzle in understanding why Steve was so adamant about my keeping our St Louis time a secret after and why he pursued me so much after with regards to telling me how special, beautiful, and meaningful I was to him. I didn't feel comfortable talking in front of Adkins about it, as this particular thing has happened to me once before a long time ago, and I've found men to be far from understanding when a woman goes to a man's hotel room and doesn't want or expect sex. When I returned to my hotel room after telling Joya and receiving a "get used to it." Steve talked to me a little while on the phone as I stated mentioning how I must be lonely since my breakup and how we both just wanted companionship. I told him I would come to his room to talk, after hearing his sob story about his failing marriage and miserable life, but just to talk. When I got there he immediately came after me physically. I told him to stop several times, reminded him that that was not why I was there and if he didn't want to talk I should go. I attempted to leave, but he blocked the door, and then proceeded to push me up against it and put his hands up inside me. I asked him to stop but he continued and eventually I just stopped resisting. He then moved to the bed where he continued to force himself onto me for awhile, stating it was ok I didn't have to worry he had a vasectomy so I wouldn't get pregnant, until I begged him to stop cause I was in pain. Then he said he just wanted to rest his eyes for a minute and as soon as I saw he was asleep I ran out of there crying around 4am.

I was petrified of the whole situation and just wanted to go home, considering Joya didn't even want to hear about him asking me upstairs I knew if I said I went to his room she wouldn't listen when I told her what happened. So I just got on my flight out and came home. Immediately after, Steve began showering me with attention through texts offering me the world and telling me he would do right by me and how much I meant to him. Over time I came to believe he was a great person who truly cared for me and I no longer wanted to betray him. I tried to allude to it a little in the meeting when I stated to you that St. Louis wasn't to me a physical relationship like he stated but mostly me saying no and trying to refuse him, but it's not something I felt I could share without being judged or breaking down. And when I said it became a truly physical relationship to me with the parking lots it was because only then was it a mutually physical relationship. I hope you can see better now why the events took the turn they did and I ask that you keep this in strict confidences. Please contact me if you have any further questions. Thank you.

Complaint:

On Wednesday 08/19/09 I was dispatched to REDACTED for the report of a possible trespassing.

Action Taken:

Upon arrival I spoke with Marni Phillips, who was visibly shaken. She explained that her husband, Stephen Phillips, has been having numerous affairs. Today when she arrived home she saw a woman parked in her driveway. When Marni attempted to confront this woman, the unknown female drove off. The vehicle she drove in was described as a blue Prius. Marni then found a letter on the front door.

The letter, which was addressed to Marni, was from a woman who claimed to be having an affair with Stephen Phillips. The letter contained some personal information that the woman who authored it claimed was relayed to her by Stephen. This information included sporting activities which Marni and Stephen's children were involved in. It also included details on the status of the marriage and physical descriptions of Stephen's anatomy, which appeared to have been written for the purpose of proving the woman's claims. Judging from Marni's reaction while reading the letter on the phone to Stephen it appeared to be quite accurate. The letter was formatted in what looked to be a confession to Marni from the woman.

Stephen relayed to his wife that the woman's name was Brooke Hundley of Bristol. Marni was advised nothing criminal had occurred at this time, and that this was a personal matter that she and Stephen would have to sort out. Marni understood and contacted a friend to keep her company.

Action Pending:

ACTION TAKEN:

This officer and Lt. Wakeman went to REDACTED on 8/20/09 at approx. 1300 hour to speak with Mr. Stephen Phillips regarding the incident from the night before.

That Mr Phillips explained that around 7/13/09 he began a short sexual relationship with a Brooke Hundley whom also worked at ESPN. He explained that this affair occurred on three different occasions. That at the end of July Mr Phillips explained that he began to pull back from the relationship and that was met with disappointment from Hundley. Since then Brooke has made several telephone calls to Mr. Phillips and has approached him in person. He continues to reiterate that he is not interested in a relationship any longer and that she needed to move on. That he explained that on August 16 she again text messaged Mr. Phillips and requested to meet him in LA at his next assignment. She explained that she wanted to be with him one more time for closure. He told her that he would not meet with her again and she became upset and threatened to call his wife and tell her everything about their relationship. Later that afternoon he received a text message from Brooke Hundley explaining that he should call his wife and tell her that she would be calling. Mrs Phillips was advised by Mr. Phillips and she chose to turn off her cell phone and unplug the phones in the house. Brooke left a voicemail which made both of the Phillips concerned. The message explained that Brooke and Mr. Phillips have been having a close personal relationship and that Brooke cared very deeply for Mr. Phillips. She added that Mr Phillips could not have both of them. He then added that on August 17 he was in LA for work and received text messages from Brooke again. The first message apologized for her actions the night before and another message wished him luck with his show that evening. He did not respond to either text message.

Mr Phillips explained that on August 19, he was working at ESPN studios in Bristol and Brooke walked up to him and delivered some mail to him around 1600 hours. Neither exchanged any words. At approx 1900 hours he received a frantic phone call from his wife explaining that Brooke had showed up at their home in Wilton and was trying to deliver a letter to Mrs Phillips. Brooke left the letter on the front door. Mr. Phillips left immediately from work and came home to Wilton. When he got home he read the letter that Brooke had left. He was shocked of the details in the letter, material that he never told her and was confused how she could have obtained such personal information. Mr. Phillips was then informed by his 16 year old son, Ryan Phillips that Brooke had sent him an e-mail. They discovered that over the past several weeks Brooke had used a girls name from Ryan's school and created an e-mail account under that identity. She was then able to talk with Mr. Phillips son to obtain more info about him. The most recent message explained that she was sorry and wanted to talk about the trespassing incident that had occurred earlier. Her earlier emails indicated that she knew what Ryan drove and was going to come watch him at football. Mr. Phillips explained that he is concerned for his families well being.

I asked Mr. Phillips if he wished to pursue this matter as a criminal investigation and he indicated that he did. I told him that I would be back on Friday to obtain written statements from him, his wife, and his son.

That I then returned to HQ and made telephone contact with Brooke Hundley. I informed her that I was inquiring about the letter she left at the Phillips home and she indicated that she knew what I was talking about. I informed her that at this point I would like to interview her and she explained that she was going on vacation and would contact me on Weds 8/26/09 when she returned. I also warned her that she is to have no contact in any way with the Phillips. She explained that she understood this.

Further interviews to be conducted. CASE OPEN.

As was discussed during two phone conversations with Donna Hricisko, during work for the All Star Game in St. Louis on July 13, 2009, Brooke Hundley approached you and informed you that ESPN talent Steve Phillips asked her to come to his room and offered her his room key. In your opinion Brooke did not appear to be upset by the offer and you thought she was just sharing the information. In response, you made the inappropriate comment "This is television that's what happens it goes with the industry" and took no further action with respect to this information, including informing your supervisor and/or any member of Human Resources.

After reflecting back on the information that Brooke shared with you relative to Steve Phillips, you felt you did not take the right approach. On July 16, 2009, during a going away party that was held in your honor due to the fact you were relocating to Charlotte you approached Brooke and apologized for not taking the information she shared with you seriously.

You suggested to Brooke you should have brought it to Matt Sandulli and would do so if she wanted you to. Brooke never responded if she wanted you to serve it up to Management or not. Brooke appeared she was not upset by your lack of action based on the information she told you relative to Steve Phillips. There has not been any further discussion between yourself and Brooke since you apologized to her and made the offer to report the incident to Management.

As we discussed, it is your responsibility to promptly notify a supervisor when you become aware of such information.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call me at your earliest convenience.

Steve called me and the NY Post had a reporter and photographer blocking the entrance to his home this afternoon. His wife called the police and did not speak with the reporter. Steve has learned -- through the discussion between the police and photographer -- the Post is planning a story connected in ways to the Letterman news. Steve also knows the reporter went to the local police station and accessed the public documents, including the details of the previous police report involving the ESPN employee. Steve is not commenting and his next move was to call Norby.

Hi Marni, sorry to be calling, but I have some pretty important information. Steve hasn't been himself lately and I think you need to know why. He's been cheating on you with a young woman, texting her while at work, and leaving early to meet her. If you want to catch them they are planning to meet tonight after the show around 12:30 in the target parking lot, off of I-84 down the street from work, thought you should know, sorry to have to be the one to tell you.

Doug, Donna,

Preliminary results show HundleyB has accessed facebook quite a few times between the date ranges July 14 and Aug 27th. The scatter plot below shows dates (x-axis) and times (y-axis) we see traffic to facebook with the hundleyb account.

We also show access to facebook pages with "Phillips" in the facebook search criteria starting on Aug 11. Per the police report, http://www.nypost.com/r/nypost/2009/10/21/news/photos_stories/elder_son_statement.pdf, the chat account name of riotgrr4life is referenced, we don't see that account being used within the data we have yet, although we are still combing through logs. The Phillip's son states he received a "chat" on Aug 17, 5:30am in his statement to the police and it does not coincide with her access logs of that day. The earliest we show her logging into our network that particular day was 5:46 am.

We have found evidence that she has a hotmail account with a display name of "Kelly" which may coincide with the "Kelly Burns" alias/Craiglist event listed here:

More to come. She's definitely used equipment here as it relates to the Phillips events. I'll give you a call.

Doug, Donna,

After going through the police logs, statements found on nypost.com's website, and going through our own systems, we've tried to piece together what she may have done or said from our logs. Our very "detailed" information leak systems can only store about a months worth of data, so we've missed most of the transactions that occurred in August (if they went through our systems at all). We have logs that go back much further, but do not show us what content may have been in the interactions, just that they occurred and in some cases, have only summary information.

Items that jump out at me:

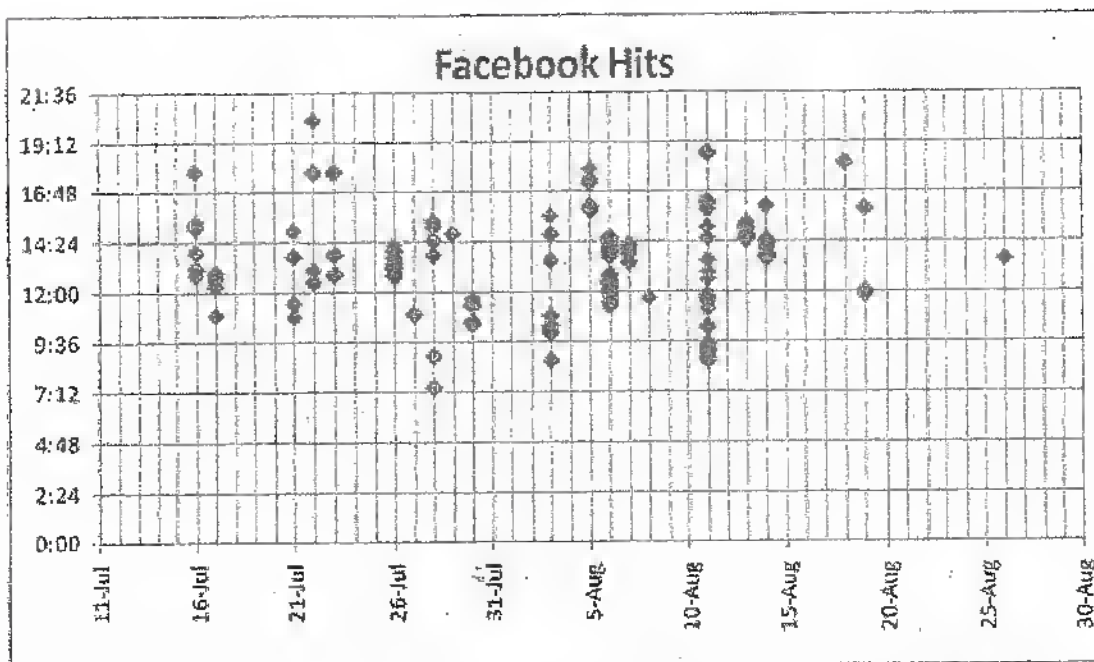

- Facebook activity and Phillips family searches on Aug 11, a week prior to son admits sharing information with a classmate (aka Brooke).
- Brookes machine has evidence of a hotmail account with a display name of "Kelly". Perhaps the same Kelly Burns that solicited Craigslist material, or posing as a Kelly from Wilton high, as that hotmail account received a facebook friend addin from a Katerina Wajda on Sep 9 who has a facebook page indicating she is a Wilton High School student.
- Remnant links or shortcuts found on her computer that indicate Brooke uses an external thumb or flash drive and created/stored documents relevant to the Phillips case on it.
- Brooke has shown an interest in "hacking facebook" as illustrated in a remnant cached web file on that subject.
- During the month of October, she has solicited three jobs outside ESPN. YES network, Diamondbacks, and Disney as a manager of corporate communications.

The supporting information is below. Sorry, no evidence of the "he said she said" in black in white. There is a rumor going around production that IT has no visibility into sms texting, and that much of the nefarious communiqué uses sms texting for that reason. They would be correct. None of those transactions go through our systems. That material can be obtained from AT&T and other wireless providers with legal pressure. The texting referenced might be using that platform. It would be interesting to know for sure if that were the case.

Supporting information:

Logs going back to July and August are summary in nature. Such is the case with the facebook transactions. It appears Brooke uses facebook quite a bit, but did not start searching the Phillips on it until Aug 11th (of which there is quite a bit). The son in his statement said to the best of his recollection, Brooke had been reaching out to him about 3 weeks prior to his 8/21 statement. Then shortly after that he was approached by a "classmate" aka Brooke, but there is no specific dates.

This is the graph that shows the times Brook accessed facebook between the dates of July 14 to Aug 27th. The scatter plot shows the dates (x-axis) and times (y-axis) the hundleyb account connected with Facebook.com.

The Phillip's son states he received a "chat" on Aug 17, 5:30am in his statement to the police and it does not coincide with her access logs of that day. The earliest we show her logging into our network that particular day was 5:46 am. We believe she lives close to work and may have done the "chat" at home before logging into work that day.

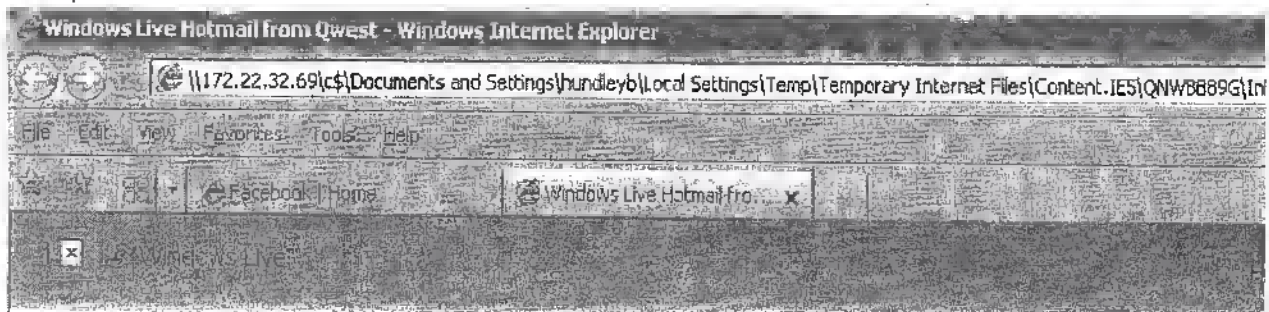

After looking at her machine, we found "shortcuts" or remnant links which appears Brooke used an external flash or thumb drive (E:) to create and store documents that may be related to the Phillips case:

- 281 Aug 26 13:46 MarniFinal.doc.Ink
- 179 Aug 26 13:47 Removable Disk (E).Ink
- 259 Aug 26 13:46 Ryan.doc.Ink
- 262 Aug 26 13:46 Steve.doc.Ink
- 577 Aug 31 08:25 phillips0723.jpg.Ink

We also found the following as a remnant web cache graphic. It shows the Brook used a hotmail account (lancers04@msn.com) and it had a display.name of "Kelly". Perhaps the same "Kelly Burns" that solicited Craigslist services? http://www.nypost.com/p/sports/mets/loony_lover_brooke_hundley_used_6LYpJb0qo7ymKMwTyZOIP

Items of note are correspondence from facebook, a relative (?) Brett Hundley, a subscription to match.com. Since this is merely a graphic remnant, we don't have the actual documents.

The last message received is from Katarlna Wajda, who just happens to be a student at Wilton High School.

Hi Brooke,

My name is Ronna Waldman and I work with ABC News at Good Morning America. I read about your situation with Mr. Phillips in the newspaper and wanted to reach out to you. I appreciate that this must be a very difficult and emotional time for you. I wanted to speak with you, because we are going to be covering your story on our program, and I wanted to see if you would be willing to share your story with us and explain how you are doing.

There have been many articles written on this situation and we hope to clarify any inaccuracies and hear from you directly. If you would be willing to give me a call back so I can explain further, I would appreciate it. The conversation would be completely confidential and off-the-record. I am merely writing to introduce myself and explain our thoughts in further detail. Thank you for reading this. My cell phone is the best way to reach me. The number is: 914-REDACTED. Again, I am very sorry that you are going through such a difficult time.

Sincerely,
Ronna

Hi Mr. McNally,

My name is Brooke Hundley I'm a production assistant over at ESPN for all our remote major league baseball coverage, as well as in charge of advancing ESPN into the digital age with the integration of social media and other new technological platforms for the younger generation. I wanted to touch base with you on the recommendation of Catherine Herman as we had spoken a little about what we could do for MLB after some successes in my ESPN college baseball world series and little league coverage last spring. I applied for your manager of corporate communications position and would love the opportunity to speak with you more about the opening, as well as what your team is interested in doing in the future. Thank you so much for your time!

1 A Because that would be our practice.

2 Q Why is that your practice?

3 MR. BERTRAND: Object to form.

4 A It's our practice so that we can get both
5 sides of a story in an investigation. We just don't 6 base anything off of one -- one side of the story.

7 BY MR. HAYBER:

8 Q Did you understand after your meeting with 9 Ms. Hundley on August 20th that she believed that 10 Mr. Phillips had acted inappropriately towards her?

11 Mr. BERTRAND: Object to form.

12 A Yes, on the -- at the night at the hotel.

13 BY MR. HAYBER:

14 Q And did you take away from that meeting with 15 Ms. Hundley that she had complained to her supervisor
16 Joya Caskey?

17 A Yes, she did say that.

18 Q Did she tell you what Joya's response was?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Do you recall that now? What was her
21 response?

22 A Something relative to, Get used to it. This
23 is the culture at ESPN.

24 Q Did you ever talk to Joya and ask her if she 25 said that?

1 A Yes, I did.

2 Q And what did Joya say?

3 A Joya said she did say that.

4 Q Was Joya punished for that?

5 A Joya was verbally spoken to relative to that
6 response.

7 Q By whom?

8 A Myself.

9 Q What did you say when you verbally spoke to
10 her?

11 A I told her that she should have served that up
12 to management.

13 Q What did she say?

14 A She totally understood.

15 Q No note was put in her personnel file about 16 this?

17 A It was -- there was a document that was
18 written up as far as what happened, yes.

19 Q Who wrote that document?

20 A Myself. Based on my conversation with her.

21 Q And that document exists today?

22 A Yes.

23 Q It hasn't been destroyed?

24 A No.

25 Q It's in Joya's personnel file?

1 reports, from the New York Post, from your IT
2 department and get her version of these events and
3 have a chance to speak for herself before you fired
4 her?

5 A Neither I nor Donna met with her to share this
6 information, that particular information with her
7 before she was terminated.

8 Q Anyone else other than you or Donna?

9 A Not that I'm aware of.

10 Q Okay.

11 So let's go back to August 20th. This is a
12 date that I questioned Miss Hricisko about. She told
13 me that there was a meeting on this date between you;
14 her, Donna Hricisko; and Brooke Hundley; is that 15 correct, that there was a meeting on that date with 16 the three of you?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay.

19 Did you take notes during that meeting?

20 A I did not.

21 Q Was this meeting called because Mr. Phillips
22 had made a stalking complaint against Ms. Hundley?

23 MR. BERTRAND: Object to form.

24 A This meeting was called because Mr. Phillips
25 brought allegations against Brooke Hundley that he

1 (sic) was stalking him and his family, and we were
2 meeting with her to give her an opportunity to
3 respond to them.

4 BY MR. HAYBER:

5 Q In what form did Mr. Phillips make this
6 complaint? Written or oral?

7 A Verbally.

8 Q Not in writing?

9 A Not in writing.

10 Q Okay.

11 To whom did he make it?

12 A Initially, to a couple of management employees
13 of ESPN, and then I joined them.

14 Q Who were those -- who were those two
15 management employees?

16 A Tim Scanlon, Jay Levy.

17 Q Do you know on what date he made this verbal
18 report to Tim and Jay?

19 A That same day.

20 Q August 20th?

21 A August 20th.

22 Q They brought it to your attention?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Did they do it verbally or an e-mail or in 25 writing or some way?

1 Q More than --

2 A -- took just brief notes that then I put onto
3 another piece of paper to fully capture what was
4 said. Mr. Phillips was talking very rapidly, and it
5 was very hard to keep up with him.

6 Q What was his demeanor?

7 A Agitated.

8 Q Did he tell you whether or not he had been to 9 the police?

10 A I remember him saying that the police had been 11 involved because they were called to the house when 12 the wife came home and found Brooke, and I believe
13 that they -- then there were ongoing conversations
14 with the Wilton Police Department.

15 Q Did you learn whether or not Mr. Phillips had 16 made a written report to the police?

17 MR. BERTRAND: Can you repeat that
18 question?

19 MR. HAYBER: Sure.

20 BY MR. HAYBER:

21 Q Did you learn from Mr. Phillips in this
22 meeting whether or not he had already given a written
23 report to the Wilton Police Department?

24 A I don't think that I did.

25 Q What time of day was your meeting with

1 Mr. Phillips?

2 A I want to say it was late morning.

3 Q Would you have put the time on any of your
4 notes?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay.

7 To the best of your recollection, what did he
8 tell you in this meeting?

9 A He told me that an ESPN employee was stalking
10 him and his family. That she had gone to his house.
11 That there had -- his wife had come home. There
12 was -- his wife tried to -- this woman was walking
13 down the driveway. There was a situation involving 14 her car, his wife's car. His wife called the 15 police.

16 He was kind of running quickly through what
17 had transpired. That a letter had been dropped off
18 at the house. He was just walking me through this
19 incident between Brooke and his wife.

20 Q Did he tell you in the meeting that he had 21 spent some time with Ms. Hundley over the last --
22 previous few weeks?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What did he say in that regard?

25 A He said that they had had a -- I want to get

1 his words right if I can remember them right --
2 consensual sexual relations. Those are my words, but
3 that was the general -- he was sharing the fact that
4 he and Brooke had been sexually intimate.

5 Q And did he indicate to you whether or not
6 there were text messages between them in this meeting
7 that you had with him?

8 A He did mention that they would text to each
9 other.

10 Q Was Mr. Phillips violating any ESPN rule by 11 having a consensual sexual relationship with 12 Ms. Hundley?

13 A We do not have a -- at this time, we do not 14 have a rule that prohibited on-air talent from having 15 relationships with ESPN employees.

16 Q You say "at this time," meaning in August of 17 2009?

18 A August 2009.

19 Q Is there such you a rule now?

20 A No, but I just want to be clear about the time
21 frame that we're talking about.

22 Q That's fair.

23 Is there -- you were careful to use the word
24 "on-air talent."

25 Is there an ESPN rule that prohibits sexual

1 communicated to people at Joya's level that there's
2 this requirement?

3 MR. BERTRAND: Object to form.

4 A Again, it's not a requirement. However, being
5 on site and having this information come to her, she 6 should have taken it to somebody else. She should 7 have taken it to a manager or a supervisor, and she 8 did not.

9 BY MR. HAYBER:

10 Q Was she punished for that?

11 MR. BERTRAND: Object to form.

12 A She received a verbal counseling which was 13 documented to her by memo. She did not receive
14 formal discipline.

15 BY MR. HAYBER:

16 Q Did you think a verbal counseling was an
17 appropriate sanction for her failure to report this 18 information?

19 MR. BERTRAND: Object to form.

20 A I do.

21 BY MR. HAYBER:

22 Q Okay.

23 Give me just a moment.

24 Let's go back to you mentioned something --

25 you mentioned that the parties retracted their

1 respond.

2 BY MR. HAYBER:

3 Q What was his response --

4 A I then, both Donna and --

5 MR. BERTRAND: Finish your answer.

6 BY MR. HAYBER:

7 Q Please,

8 A Donna and myself and tried to meet with Brooke
9 to learn more about the substance of these
10 allegations, and she made herself unavailable.

11 Q What was Steve's response?

12 A He denied them.

13 Q Did he admit being in the hotel room?

14 A He admitted that Brooke came to his hotel
15 room.

16 Q Did you go through this letter line by line
17 with him asking to see if some parts of it were true
18 and some parts weren't true?

19 A I went through the information in this letter.
20 I don't remember if I read to him the first line
21 saying, is that true, second line; but we went 22 through each element of this.

23 Q So one of the things Brooke writes in the 24 middle here is, "When I returned to my hotel room
